

that starting with the Summer Session 1984, Humanities Departments require a formal written examination of no less than three (3)

SENATE - April 19, 1984

Page 4

hours duration in each of their courses, except where the specific nature of a course suggests a different type of final evaluation, such exceptions to be approved by the Department and the Dean.